Managing Principal Tasneem Chipty Joins Analysis Group Staff

Boston, December 9, 2010 — Analysis Group, a leading provider of economic, financial, and business expertise to law firms, corporations, and government agencies, has added a new Managing Principal to its Boston office.

Tasneem Chipty, Ph.D., is an expert on industrial organization, antitrust economics, and econometrics. She has advised clients on a range of competitive issues and has provided economic and econometric analyses in cases involving antitrust liability, damages, and class certification. She has also consulted with businesses involved in product liability litigation, intellectual property disputes, and rate setting hearings.

“We are delighted that a professional of Tasneem’s stature has decided to join our firm,” said Analysis Group President and CEO Martha S. Samuelson. “Her expertise runs deep, and we know her contributions here will be of tremendous value.”

Dr. Chipty has studied numerous industries, with significant focus on media markets, including cable and satellite television, broadcast and satellite radio, newspapers, and music-performance rights, as well as pharmaceuticals, health care, and tobacco. Dr. Chipty has submitted testimony, testified at trial and at deposition, and given presentations before various organizations and agencies, including the Federal Trade Commission and the Department of Justice.

Prior to joining Analysis Group, Dr. Chipty was a Vice President at Charles River Associates. She has served on the faculties of the Ohio State University, Brandeis University, and MIT, where she taught courses in antitrust and regulation, industrial organization, and econometrics.

She received her Ph.D. in economics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, and her B.A. in mathematics and economics from Wellesley College.

“Analysis Group brings together a talented group of consultants under the umbrella of thoughtful leadership. I am very excited to join the team,” Dr. Chipty said.
