

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Antitrust Expert James Levinsohn Affiliates with Analysis Group

---

Boston, October 20, 2009 — Analysis Group, Inc., a leading provider of economic, finance, and strategy expertise, is pleased to announce the affiliation of antitrust expert James A. Levinsohn, Ph.D., Professor of Economics and J. Ira and Nicki Harris Family Professor of Public Policy at the University of Michigan. Effective January 1, 2010, Dr. Levinsohn moves to Yale University where he will be Professor of Economics at the Yale School of Management and the inaugural Director of the Jackson Institute for Global Affairs.

Professor Levinsohn is an expert in industrial organization and has provided expert reports and testimony in several landmark antitrust and regulatory matters, including the Cardizem CD Antitrust Litigation, the Vitamins Antitrust Litigation, the New Motor Vehicles Canadian Export Antitrust Litigation, and the Tobacco Master Settlement Agreement proceedings.

“Jim Levinsohn is one of the leading experts in the fields of industrial organization and applied econometrics, and we are delighted that he has chosen to affiliate with Analysis Group,” said firm President and CEO Martha Samuelson.

Professor Levinsohn also conducts research in international economics and development economics, and has consulted to numerous foreign governments and international organizations.

---

Founded in 1981, and with more than 475 professional staff, Analysis Group provides economic, financial, and business strategy consulting to leading law firms, Fortune 500 companies, and government agencies. We assist law firms with all aspects of litigation, and advise corporations and government clients on business issues that require expert analysis and interpretation of economic and financial data.

###