Boston, November 11, 2008 — Analysis Group, the largest privately held economic consulting firm in the country, has been named one of the Top Places to Work in Massachusetts in a survey published by the Boston Globe (November 9; www.boston.com/jobs/topworkplaces).

The "Top Places to Work" recognizes the most progressive companies in the state based on employee opinions about company leadership, compensation and training, diversity/inclusion, career development, family-friendly flexibility, and values and ethics. Private companies and nonprofits as well as publicly-held businesses were included in the analysis of employee-provided data. The rankings are based on survey information collected by Workplace Dynamics.

Analysis Group was ranked 56 on the overall list and 25 on the list of companies with 100-249 employees in Massachusetts.

President and CEO Martha S. Samuelson said that although the survey focused only on employees in Massachusetts, "We all succeed because of our joint activities as a firm, across the firm. Being recognized as a great place to work is the result of the collective efforts and behavior of everyone who works here."

Boston Globe publisher Steve Ainsley stated, "All the companies included in the Globe 100's Top Places to Work deserve a great deal of recognition. It's clear that they value their employees and make it a priority to create a positive workplace."

To qualify, a company must have more than 100 employees in Massachusetts. More than 600 qualified companies and 120,000 employees participated. Rankings were composite scores calculated purely on the basis of employee responses.
