

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Analysis Group Appoints New Managing Principal: Jonathan Arnold to Expand Chicago Presence

Boston, May 22, 2006 — Analysis Group, a leading economic consulting firm, announced today that Jonathan Arnold, Ph.D., joins as a Managing Principal, based in Chicago. Mr. Arnold will lead the expansion of Analysis Group's presence in the Chicago area along with Andrew Wong, Ph.D., who joins the firm as a Vice President. An expert in antitrust, intellectual property, and securities, Mr. Arnold comes to Analysis Group from Chicago Partners, where he was a principal of the firm. He has worked on behalf of numerous Fortune 500 companies and with most of the nation's top law firms, and has managed the analysis and expert work in numerous Winstar cases for the U.S. Department of Justice. Mr. Arnold regularly manages complex civil litigation matters, many of which involve assessing arguments submitted by multiple expert witnesses and preparing multiple experts in rebuttal covering various aspects of accounting, economics, and finance. Recent examples include work for Honeywell in a $1 billion case involving alleged accounting fraud and fraudulent conveyance; for a top financial institution in connection with its Enron-related litigations; and with leading industrial and asset management firms subject to intensive regulatory scrutiny by the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition to his focus on managing such matters, he testifies on liability and damages issues in antitrust, intellectual property, securities, and complex business tort disputes. Mr. Arnold's experience includes work in a wide range of industries, including telecommunications, Internet access, biotech, beverages, food, pharmaceuticals, medical devices, and industrial products.

"Jonathan comes to Analysis Group as a seasoned professional with a sterling reputation for personal integrity, command of law and economics, and effective and persuasive testimony before judges and juries," said Martha Samuelson, President and CEO of the firm. "While we have worked extensively with clients in the Chicago area for many years, Jonathan and Andy will really ramp up our presence, and help us build a solid base from which to develop new relationships and continue our growth." "I am delighted to move to Analysis Group, where I believe I will be able to serve my clients even more effectively than before," said Mr. Arnold, upon accepting his new position. "Analysis Group's extensive resources, as well as its unparalleled roster of affiliated academics from the country's leading academic institutions, will enable me to offer experts and expertise highly tailored to the issues facing my clients." Mr. Arnold has served as a Lecturer at The University of Chicago Graduate School of Business and the Department of Economics. He holds a Ph.D. and MBA from The University of Chicago and is a member of the American Economic Association and the American Law and Economics Association. He is also a certified public accountant.

Mr. Arnold will be joined in the firm's Chicago office by Andrew Wong, Vice President, who specializes in corporate finance, venture capital, securities, and company valuation. Mr. Wong is currently working on SEC investigations into mutual fund industry practices, including allegations of market timing and front running, as well as legal disputes relating to structured debt products. He also works on intellectual property matters including lost profits and reasonable royalty analyses, suitability disputes, and pricing matters involving infrequently-traded securities such as municipal bonds. Mr. Wong, formerly with Chicago Partners, holds a Ph.D. and MBA from The University of Chicago.

Analysis Group provides economic, financial, and business strategy consulting to law firms, corporations, and government agencies. The firm has more than 300 professionals, with offices in Boston, Dallas, Denver, Los Angeles, Menlo Park, New York, San Francisco, Washington, and Montreal. A new Chicago office will open this year.

