Mr. Deal leads the economic consulting practice in the Menlo Park, CA office of Analysis Group. He has over 25 years of experience in economic, litigation, and management consulting. He has led hundreds of projects requiring complex economic analysis of publicly available and internal client information.

He has served as an expert witness in dozens of litigation and regulatory matters, and has been retained as a neutral expert in a complex mediation. His work as an expert has covered a variety of practice areas, including antitrust, finance and securities litigation, damages, and business valuation. Mr. Deal's industry experience has included health care, insurance, technology, telecommunications, and many others.

Prior to joining Analysis Group, Mr. Deal spent several years as a senior consultant and manager with Arthur Andersen. In this position, he provided financial and management consulting services to hospitals, physicians, and other clients, in such areas as operational organization and efficiency, merger and consolidation strategies, current and projected financial performance, and overall strategic planning.

Mr. Deal has taught economics and analytic methods to graduate students at Harvard University and published articles on economics-related topics. He has also consulted on national economic policy issues to the government of Indonesia through the Harvard Institute for International Development.

He coauthored a major report, The Economic Effects of Federal Participation in Terrorism Risk with R. Glenn Hubbard, an Analysis Group affiliate and former chair of the President's Council of Economic Advisers. In addition, he also coauthored a study, Economic Impact Analysis: Proposition 71 California Stem Cell Research and Cures Initiative with Laurence Baker, an Analysis Group affiliate and Stanford University School of Medicine faculty member, with whom he published an updated interim economic report on California's stem cell initiative. Mr. Deal is also the coauthor of a chapter on the use of econometrics in antitrust litigation for a recent American Bar Association publication.
